

flagman be placed at N'western railway grade crossing on Touhy st. in Jessville, where she was killed.

Chas. W. Murphy completed details by which he becomes complete owner of old Cub park.

Annie Sachs, 1319 N. Washtenaw av., got $8.33 back wages from Minnie S. Lee, beauty doctor, North American bldg., when Legal Aid society seized Miss Lee's jewelry.

Att'y Maurice Weishenker completed draft of ordinance against fake auctioneers, which he hopes city council will adopt.

J. C. Strenheim saved two women from drowning by fast motor boat trip at foot of Ainslee st.

THE TRAIL OF PANCHO VILLA

Drawn at Columbus, N. M., by Robert Minor, Famous Artist, Who is On the Mexican Border for The Day Book.